Travel advisors can arrange a private walking tour with Virtuoso on-site connection American Excursionist for an in-depth intro to the city's architecture. Scope out classic Charleston Single homes (narrow buildings with grand west-facing patios to capture the breeze), mansions, and more.

STAY

● Charleston's only high-end waterfront hotel – the 92-room Beach Club at Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina – is a ten-minute drive over the Arthur Ravenel Jr. Bridge (or a 15-minute water-taxi ride across Charleston Harbor from Mount Pleasant). Its two pools, kids' club, and roomy, nautical-chic accommodations make it a great base for families. Doubles from $197, including a welcome amenity, breakfast daily, and a $100 resort credit.

● Housed in a former federal building on Marion Square, The Dewberry Charleston is a midcentury-modern splash of style in the middle of the city. In the 155-room hotel's Living Room bar, patrons sip negronis in surroundings straight out of Mad Men. Doubles from $299, including breakfast daily and a $100 dining credit.

● Check into the 434-room Belmond Charleston Place for old-school elegance – grand staircases, Italian marble floors, chandeliers everywhere. A rooftop spa and infinity-edge pool fuel lazy afternoon breaks, and King Street shopping is steps away. Doubles from $366, including breakfast daily and a $100 dining credit.

● The 16-room Zero George Street comprises a handful of nineteenth-century town houses and Charleston Singles converted to guest rooms with pine floors, custom millwork, and shared outdoor piazzas. The on-site cooking school offers crash courses in Southern cuisine. Doubles from $299, including breakfast daily and a $100 dining credit or a class on cocktails or wine for two. VI.
